

HOW DID THIS EVIL BECOME A HOLIDAY OR "HOLY"?

Christian holidays are ancient pagan holidays that were introduced by the Roman Catholic Church during the rule of Emperor Constantine. Constantine was a sun-worshipping pagan who had a "Christian experience" in which he wanted to unite his empire, both Christian and pagan. He accomplished this by rewriting history and renaming pagan holidays with so-called Christian names. Valentine's Day began as a liturgical celebration of one or more of the early Romans named Valentinus.

You are the descendants of the slave trade!

The Prophets warned us that if we broke the commandments, we would be punished as a people. Read Deuteronomy 28:15-68 (KJV). This did not happen to any other nation on earth!

Valentine's Day, or the Ides of February in the Roman calendar, is the feast of the Lupercalia. Lupercus was the god of shepherds and his festival was meant to ensure fertility in the coming spring. At the beginning of the festival, there was an animal sacrifice and then straps (whips) were made from the skins of the animals. The priests of Luperci would then run through the streets, dressed in bloody goat skins, and whip the women of the city with the straps, a ritual that had the purpose of both promoting fertility among women and facilitating childbirth.

In Greek, it is known as Lycaean Pan, the Romans called it Inuus or Faunus Lupercus. Pan is famous for his sexual powers and is often depicted with a phallus (penis). Diogenes of Sinope jokingly recounted a myth of Pan learning masturbation from his father, Hermes, and teaching the habit to shepherds. Bestiality was rampant during the Greco-Roman era!

As seen in the lycanthropy word for werewolf. Etymologically, Luperci, Lupercalia, Lupercal all relate to the Latin word for wolf "lupus", as do several Latin words connected with brothels. The Latin word for she-wolf was slang for prostitute. Legend has it that Romulus and Remus were suckled by a she-wolf in the Lupercales. Servius, a fourth-century pagan commentator on Vergil, says that it was in the Lupercalias that Mars raped and impregnated the mother of the twins.

VALENTINE'S DAY IS OF THE DEVIL!!!!!!

FOR NOT FOLLOWING THE COMMANDMENTS OF GOD

The pagans in Rome celebrated the night of February 14 and 15 and as an idolatrous festival in honor of Lu percus "the wolf hunter". It was not until the reign of Pope Gelasius that the holiday became a "Christian" custom. "As early as 496, Pope Gelasius changed Lupercalia on February 15 to Valentine's Day on February 14." Nimrod was the original Valentine. On this February day, Semiramis, the mother of Tammuz, is said to have been purified and had first appeared in public with her son as the original "mother and son".

Exodus 20:3-4

Thou shalt have no other gods before me.
Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:
